Windtor Cottage

View from the sitting room

Recently refitted throughout with central heating, solid oak floors a new kitchen and bathroom, the Cottage is located high on the west side of the Widecombe valley. It is just over half a mile from the centre of the village and commands astounding views over the surrounding moor land and countryside. The Cottage stands in a small secluded garden with direct access to the moor. It offers opportunities for walking, horse riding, bird-watching and geo-caching. There are plenty of other attractions within easy reach. The south coast beaches are about half an hour away.

The Cottage sleeps 4 adults and 2 children and the accommodation consists of a sitting room with a fire, TV, video and DVD player. A door leads through to a south facing sun-room which has garden furniture and views over the surrounding countryside

Kitchen

The kitchen incorporates an electric cooker and microwave. There is an adjoining larder with a fridge-freezer. There is a downstairs lavatory.

Bedrooms

There are 3 bedrooms one of which is a small bunk-room and is located downstairs. The upstairs bedrooms are large with views over the surrounding countryside and beautiful Cottage garden. One is furnished with a double bed while the other has twin beds.

Bathroom

There is a modern bathroom which has commanding views over the moors and an upstairs lavatory. The modern combination boiler provides the hot water for baths and there is a recently fitted electric shower.

Central heating and linen

The heating is supplied by a modern combination boiler. Towels, sheets, duvet covers, pillow cases and drying up cloths are all provided. There is a washing machine as well as all the other basics one would expect.

Things to do

There is a range of activities in the area. There are 2 very popular pubs and a useful café and general stores in the village. A good selection of shops is available in Ashburton (6 Miles), Newton Abbot (10 Miles) and Exeter and Plymouth are just 40 minutes away.

Walks

There are several walks which start on the moor beside the Cottage. Some are all day outings while others are short excursions to the local pubs! Geo-caching has become popular and there are some to be found on Wind Tor itself.

Days out There is something for all the family in this part of Devon. Nearby you will find the following attractions:

South Devon Steam Railway

Buckfast Butterflies and Otters

Miniature Pony Centre

Shilstone Rocks Riding Stables

River Dart Country Park
